Two Boston Brahmins in Goethe's Germany: The Travel Journals of Anna and George Ticknor:

This volume includes the travel logs of Anna and George Ticknor from two journeys to the German Confederation from 1815 to 1817 and from 1835 to 1836. As members of an exclusive social class the Ticknors enjoyed the privilege of traveling and living for an extended period in the German speaking world which conferred much sought after cultural and social distinction on them in Boston. A valuable primary source for American and German historians alike these journals offer. In this work elite Americans express their fascination with the cultural and social life they observed and experienced while on extended tour in early nineteenth century Germany particularly in Dresden the vibrant capital of the Kingdom of Saxony.
