Fine craftsmanship and handiwork originality in design aesthetic purity and honest use of materials in both decorative and utilitarian objects were the ideals embraced by Boston's Society of Arts and Crafts. This book celebrates the organization's centenary with splendid examples of metalwork, jewelry, textiles, furniture, ceramics, photography and more. 273 illustrations, 52 in color. From Library Journal. These two excellent books are joined spiritually as they explore the Arts Crafts movement's quest for a retreat from the materialism of the Gilded Age as manifested on different sides of the continent. Inspiring Reform is an exhibition catalog.
